ANNOUNCEMENTS.

FOR STATE REPRESENTATIVE.

We are authorized to announce

GRANT HOLLIDAY

as a candidate for Representative from the 92d Legislative District, composed of the counties of Breathitt, Lee and Magoffin, subject to the action of the Republican party.

FOR ASSESSOR.

as a candidate for Assessor of Breathitt county, subject to the action of the Republican party.

The New York World makes the alarming statement that Mrs.
Astor no longer wears diamonds in her garters, but the question that rankles is how did the New York World find it out?

The News reporter is supposed to have, besides the usual five senses, a sixth sense located in the organ of "his nose for news." Besides these he should have a respectable endowment of common sense. But all these granted, he cannot see nor hear nor scent all the news that is fit to print. So, if you have an interesting item, don't find fault if it isn't in print, but send it to THE NEWS and receive the thanks of the office.

THE HOME NEWSPAPER

Any man can take a home newspaper. It is the cheapest thing he can buy. It costs no more than a postage stamp, and it instructs you and your wife and teaches your children. It comes rain or shine, calm or storm, bringing you the best news of the neighborhood. No matter what happens it enters your door as a welcome friend, full of sunshine, cheer and interest. It shortens the long winter nights. It is your adviser, your gossip and your friend. No man is just to his wife and children who does not give them the home newspaper to read.

At a typographical wedding in Chicago the bride and groom were dressed in paper. Undoubtedly the groom was a "typographical tourist" and the wedding super-consisted of beer and printers'
"pie," handed out by the galley boy, who is always slower than a snail.

We are under the impression that if you will scimp and pinch and rob your family, wear a calico shirt a month without washing, buy one overcoat in twenty years, and cuss and dam and swear every time your family spends 25 cents for sugar and coffee, make your wife do all the scrubbing, washing, ironing and cooking and baking give nothing to anybody and not let a ray of sunshine into your gizzard you will get rich.
You will also burn, as you ought to.

Geo. W. Whittaker, representing the Breathitt Coal, Iron & Lumber Co., was here on business Thursday.

THE MARCUM CASE

The following is a brief review of the proceedings in the Marcum-Hargis case, now on trial at Winchester, as we have gleaned from the daily papers:

On Monday morning A. F.
Bird stated the case for the plaintiff and in the afternoon J. M.
Stevenson did the same thing for the defendants.

Tuesday morning Mrs. J. B.
Marcum, the widow, went on the witness stand and told of warnings
Mr. Marcum had received.

The next witness was Capt. B.
J. Ewen, whose testimony was pretty much the same as in the Jett-white trial.

John E. Patrick and J. J. C.
Back next testified to the same facts in said trial.

On Wednesday morning Henry B. Noble took the stand and said that he saw Tom white fire the second shot into Marcum's body and then walk over to Hargis Bros. store, and that a short time afterward he (Noble) went into the office of the store and found James Hargis, Ed Callahan and Tom White there, and that he heard White say, "well, Ed, what are you and Jim going to do about that money?"

Ruck Cottongame was the next witness whose testimony related mostly to French.

Mrs. Rebecca Bailey, mother of Moses Feltner, also testified as to what French had said to her.

It is thought the trial will not be concluded for at least two weeks.

Correspondence.

TORRENT.

Edward Myers contemplates moving to Clay City.

Mrs. John Jones was mixing with friends at Zachariah this week.

Clifford Jones, who has been on the sick list for a few days, is on the road to recovery.

Bud Smith removed his family from Walker's creek to Ridgewood Junction a few days since.

Mrs. K. M. Rose, of Ridgewood Junction, returned home last week from a visit to her mother, Mrs. A. M.
Nichols, at Lee City.

News has reached us from Clay City that Franklin Daniel, one of our late citizens, is the proud father of a 12½ pound boy. The youngster made his appearance on the 7th inst.

The Eastern Kentucky Lumber Plant at Ridgewood Junction, owned by the Swann-Day Lumber Co., of Clay City, finished up a big contract for oil barrel staves with the Standard Oil Co. this week. The factory has been in operation since 1900, and Swann-Day are moving the plant to Clay City for future work.

STRAY NOTICE.

This is to certify that on the 22nd day of November, 1904, Green Shepherd, of Lambrie, Ky., appeared before me, stating that he had taken up a stray heifer, about 1½ years of age, worth about six ($6.00) dollars; color, red, with white on forehead and shoulder, and with small, crooked horns.
W. R. SHEPHERD, J. P. B. C.

Startling Evidence.

Fresh testimony in great quantity is constantly coming in declaring Dr.
King's New Discovery for Consumption Coughs and Colds to be unequalled. A recent expression from F. J. McFarland Bentonville, Va., serves as example. He writes: "I had bronchitis for three years and doctored all the time without being benefited. Then I began taking Dr. King's New Discovery and a few bottles wholly cured me." Equally effective in curing all Lung and Throat troubles, Consumption, Pneumonia and Grip. Guaranteed by Jackson Drug Co. Trial bottles free, regular sizes 50c and $1.00.

Long Afore I Knewed

JES' a little bit o' feller—I remember all—Lie to about cry for Christmas, like a youngster will.
Fourth o' July's nothing to it—New Year's ain't a small Easter Sunday, circus day—jes' all dead in the drink
I sit, though—at night, you know—'s at around and hear
The old folks work the story of about the sleds and deer And Santa shoots 'round the roof, all wrapped in fur and haze—
Long afore I knowed who Santa Claus was.

UST to wait and get up late a week or two ahead;
Katie stavin' on the fire and mother sittin' here;
Darin' socks and rockin' in the shanty rockin' chair; Paw'd cap and wonder where it was the money went
And quar' with his foot look and up his fingers.
And me a-dramin' sleighs when the clock 'd white and
haze,
Long afore I knowed who
Santa Claus was.

SIZE the fireplace up and figure how Old Santa could Manage to come down the chimney like they said he would.
What I could hide and see him—wondered what he'd say
If he heched a feller layin' for him that a-way.
But I bet on him and 'laved him, same as if he had Tarned out on me on the back and say, 'Lave me, my lad, Wine's my pack; jes' he's yourself, like all good boys does.'
Long afore I knowed who
Santa Claus was.

WISHT that yam was true about him, as 'e 'peased to be—
Tried to make out 'e line, that us 'e good enough for me!
Over hangin' up your stockin', like the little child Chimbin' in my lap tonight and beggin' me to tell 'Bout them reindeers and Old Santa that she loves so well.
I'm half sorry for this little girl sweetest of his—Long afore she knows who Santa Claus is.
—James Whitcomb Phillips.

Plum Pudding.
One pound of grated bread, one and a quarter pounds of grated suet, one pound of raisins, one pound of brown sugar, twelve eggs, well beaten; two wingsfuls of brandy, one-quarter pound of citron, cut fine. Mix all these the night before. In the morning before putting it in the cloth stir two tablespoonsful of wheat flour, beat the cloth and sprinkle with flour. Tie tightly and boil four hours. Put a plate turned on the under part in the pot under the pudding, add cinnamon and nutmeg if liked.

CHRISTMAS CRACKERS.

A Youthful Schemer.
Little Emerson—You don't believe in any such ridiculous myth as Santa Claus?
Tough Jimmy—Now! I'm next to dat game. All de same, it's a good graff to let on you believe in him an' git all dat's comin' to you.

Their Christmas Presents.
Papa—I am afraid that I shall not be able to get the children any Christmas presents this year.
Mamma—Oh, John!
Papa—Well, it isn't my fault. I have tried my very best to open their banks.

His Plait.
The Christmas cynic's here again
To irritate the soul.
He says that he gets neckties when He needs a ton of coal.

An Insuperable Objection.
"I would like to give myself to you as a Christmas present," said young Poore to Miss Rocks.
"Papa does not allow me to receive expensive presents from young men," replied the maiden.—Town Topics.

With thoughts of what to buy;

CHRISTMAS CHILDREN.

Some Famous Men Who Were Born on Christ's Birthday.

Even were it not for its celebration as the birthday of the Saviour, Dec.
25 would rank as quite a notable date in the year for the number of eminent persons whose natal day it is. Curiously enough, however, we seldom think of the day as the beginning of the career of any one on earth other than the one to whom custom has assigned it.

We know that historical events of all sorts—battles, sieges, and so forth—have occurred on Christmas, for articles almost without end dealing with this interesting side of the history of the day have been written, but of its biographical side little has been said, the more odd this because the fact that many notables have been born on the day cannot fail to prove of interest.

The biographical index of Christmas is comparatively long and includes such names as Sir Isaac Newton, William Collins, the lyric poet; P. S. Gilmore, the musician and bandmaster; Richard Porson, the greatest classical scholar England ever produced; Johann Jacob Reiske, the celebrated German orien-talist; Clara Barton, Admiral S. C. Rohan and a number of others. Unhappy little shavers they must have been in their childhood with their birthday and their Christmas rejoicings all merged in one.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

CHRISTMAS IN WEST INDIES

How the Darkies of the Antilles Celebrate the Holiday.

Christmas in the West Indies is a very jovial, rollicking affair—at least in the estimation of the darkies. The great feature of the season is the series of masquerades or mystery plays enacted by strolling negro performers.

These are of two sorts. Representations of such Biblical stories as that of David and Goliath—when you may see the dramatic personae clad in such historically accurate garments as "bed-tick" trousers and cretonne coats of flaming pattern—and those of a purely local character. Of these last is the mongoose play, which is peculiar to St.
Kitts, and the object of which is to wage mimic war against the destructive pest which is the curse of the island. These strolling players are the chief feature of Christmas celebrations.

They are quite an imposing lot of men, with a good ear for music, and as you watch their antics you might easily imagine that, instead of being in a civilized British colony, you were back in the heart of Africa, assisting at some savage death dance or other heathen rite.

Christmas in Tibet.

Tibet, the home of the strangest and least known people on the face of the earth, is also the home of the strangest of Christmas customs. The feast of Queen Winter in Tibet corresponds with our own Christmas festival. The figure of this queen, or goddess, is painted blue and mounted on a camel, surrounded by a string of human skulls. The dance celebrated at this feast is called team, and the masked figures which take part in it would be comic if they were not so horrible. One represents a horned bull, another a deer, but this deer, peculiarly enough, has a horse's head, an ancient symbol among the Tibetans of the messenger of death. There are evil spirits in hordes, demons and other bad spirits to shock the ignorant people into blind obedience to the lamas. One god curses another, and every town has its local protecting divinity. There are serpent gods representing the spirit of evil, but they are fought by such protecting divinities as Garuda, who is always represented in lamasim with a stout body, human arms, wings and the head of a bird.— Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Christmas Cards.

The Christmas card as we know it has an origin easily traceable, and it is doubtless at least sixty years since the first was designed. The artist who claimed to be its originator and who was, at any rate, the first to see its possibilities was W. C. T. Dobson, R. A., who, when quite a young man, in 1844, was prompted at Christmas to make a little sketch symbolic of the season's joys and festivities and to send it to a friend. It seemed to give great pleasure, and the next year Mr.
Dobson determined to follow up the idea on a larger scale, and by having his card photographed was enabled to send copies to twenty-five or thirty friends. The delight with which they were received was so great that Mr.
Dobson was quick to perceive that he had found out a new pleasure for Christmas.—New York Mail and Express.

"Man Wants but Little."
"Made known your wants for Christmas yet?"
"Sure. Asked the forty-seven friends who sent me suspenders last year to send trousers to match them this."— Cincinnati Times-Star.

The Dawn of Christmas.
Christmas day begins in the middle of the Pacific ocean, and there is where Santa Claus starts and ends his great and only journey of the year.

When you pull a wishbone with a wins, the big end or the little end? In some houses the small end wins, and in other houses the big end wins. It's Beware of Counterfeits.

"DeWitt's is the only genuine Witch Hazel Salve" writes J. L. Tucker, of Centre, Ala. "I have used it in my family for Piles, Cuts and Burns for years and can recommend it to be the best Salve on the market. Every family should keep it as it is an invaluable household remedy and should always be kept on hand for immediate use." Mrs. Samuel Gage, of North Bush, N.
Y., says: "I had a fever sore on my ankle for twelve years that the doctors could not cure. All the salves and blood remedies proved worthless. I could not walk for over two years.
Finally I was persuaded to try De-Witt's Witch-Hazel Salve which has completely cured me. It is a wonderful relief." DeWitt's Witch Hazel

A Second Offense.

The tramp arrested for vagrancy rarely displays any humor, but a New York paper mentions one whose mild waggishness enlivened his own trial.
After the judge had looked the man over he said musingly, "I seem to know your face."

"Yes," the tramp agreed pleasantly;
"we were boys together."
"Nonsense!" said the judge, frowning.

"But we were," the tramp said, with mild insistence. "We're about the same age. We must 'a' been boys together."

A Snowball a Year.

One of the queer rents paid to the English crown is by the well known Foulis family. This family holds a forest, and the rental of the forest is the delivery of a snowball any day it is asked for. Always the Foulis family must have a snowball ready. It is no trouble to them, either, for Ben Wyvis, a mountain of great height, is in the forest, and the top is always covered with snow.

Sorry He Spoke.

Husband (during the quarrel)—I wouldn't be a fool if I were you. Wife (calmly)—My dear, I can readily understand that if you were me you wouldn't be a fool.

It is a blunder to treat men without self respect as if they were your equals.

Doubtful.

An old lady took her little grandson to a museum, and when they came to a lion with gaping mouth the boy lunged back.
"Don't be afraid, Harold," the lady said. "That lion is stuffed."
"Yes," said Harold, "but maybe he isn't stuffed so full that he couldn't find room for a little boy like me."

Death of Mason T. Cope.

Ex-Representative Mason T. Cope died at his home on Frozen creek Friday evening, December 9th, at five o'clock. He had been ill for several months and his physician had recently decided to take him to Lexington for special attention and treatment, and he would have been taken on the following day had he not taken the change for worse. He leaves a wife (nee Miss Lucinda Hurst) and five children to mourn his loss. The funeral services were conducted Sunday afternoon by Rev. Powell, of this place, and the remains were interred in the old Cope burial ground on Frozen.

Good Tide Needed.

The sudden rise in the river Friday night reanimated the lagging spirits of timber men in this section, and there were fair promises that a tide would soon come and bring the many thousand logs that are now lying in the Kentucky river and tributaries above Jackson, to be cut by our mills for market. There was enough water to float ties, but up to this time the water is insufficient to float logs. A good tide is sorely needed by the people of this section, as a large amount of capital has been invested in the timber that now awaits the tides, and scores of families here daily await the starting of the mills for support.

Alex Jackson and R. B. Neeley, who are also confined in jail, refused to take advantage of the opportunity.

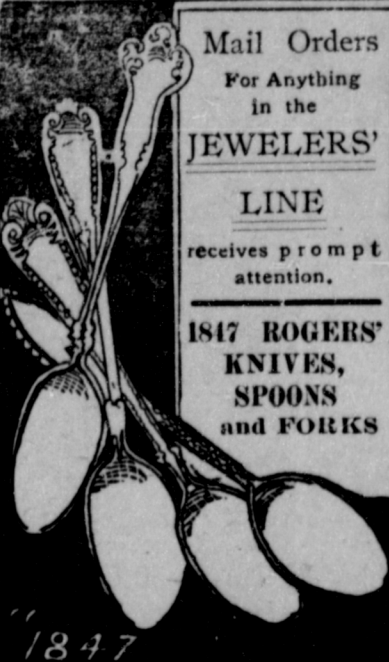

McIntosh was charged with rape and Spencer with murder.

No More Suffering.

If you are troubled with indigestion get a bottle of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure and see how quickly it will cure you. Geo. A. Thompson, of Spencer, Ia., says: "I have had Dyspepsia for twenty years. My case was almost hopeless. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure was recommended and I used a few bottles of it and it is the only thing that has relieved me. Would not be without it. Have doctored with local physicians and also at Chicago and even went to Norway with hopes of getting some relief, but Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is the only remedy that has done me any good, and I heartily recommend it. Every person suffering with indigestion or Dyspepsia should use it." Sold by M. S. Crain, Jackson, Ky.

The Defiant Tomato.

"It has happened to me several times in my life," says Thomas E. Watson in Bethany, "to be arrested, convicted and sentenced to die with other well dressed convicts, male and female, at a swell dinner—one of those formal functions where solemn fumes bring you one thing only to eat at a time. When you have pecked awhile at that one thing, whatever it may be, solemn fumes take it away and bring you another plate and some other thing to peck at awhile.
"Sometimes it happens that this one thing is a big, defiant looking tomato. To sit in one's chair, gazing at the last course which the finks has just put on; to realize that this entire course consists of a solitary tomato, looking fiercely red and raw; to glance along the table and to realize that all the convicts, male and female, have one tomato apiece and are trying to look cheerfully at the convict boss—the host—has overwhelmed me every time it got the chance. The scene is heartrending."

Worst of all Experiences.

Can anything be worse than to feel that every minute will be your last? Such was the experience of Mrs. S. H. Newson, Decatur, Ala. "For three years" she writes "I endured insufferable pain from indigestion, stomach and bowel trouble. Death seemed inevitable when doctors and all remedies failed. At length I was induced to try Electric Bitters and the result was miraculous. I improved at once and now I'm completely recovered." For Liver, Kidney, Stomach and Bowel Troubles Electric Bitters is the only medicine. Only 50c. It's guaranteed by Jackson Drug Co.

—AND—
Saw Mill For Sale

Nine hundred and fifty acres, lying in Rockcastle County, Kentucky, at Boone's Gap Switch, on the K. C. division of the L. & N. R. R., four miles south of Berea. This land is good for farming, grass, oats, wheat, rye and corn. Some poor and knobby, but most of it lays well; more than 400 acres level; it has on the ridges pine and oak that runs any size up to 30 inches. In the bottoms and hollows it has gum, white oak, black oak, hickory, poplar and lots of second growth white oak. All but 200 acres of it was cut over 21 years ago, but lots of good timber is left that is very valuable now. The 500 acres have good pine, oak, chestnut oak, chestnut, poplar, gum and black oak, with 30 to 40 cords of an bark on it. A coal vein of 30 inches or more has been found at the railroad which runs through this land, 22 feet under the ground in the bottom. Good timothy grass farms above and below it; one of 600 acres sold sixty days ago for $5 per acre; one of 40 acres sold for $10 per acre. Will guarantee one million feet of good timber to be cut off this land. The timber is not all of the best class, but lots of first-class stuff, such as pine, oak, and poplar, can be cut off of it. Will sell this land for $5.00 per acre and make perfect title to same.

I also have a good saw mill in operation on this land and four good mules and one wagon, which I will sell for $1,000 in connection with the land. My reasons for selling is on account of my health, and wish to go to some other point. Will take $3,000 cash and give time on the balance. This is the greatest bargain ever offered in land and am anxious to sell. Call on or address

A Record of Marvelous Accomplishment.

Established February 19, 1904. The Kentucky Farmer and Breeder, of Lexington, has, within a few months' time, become concededly the best weekly paper of its kind in America, and has secured a paid-in-advance circulation of over 13,000 copies.

Among the contributors to its columns on agricultural topics are many of the best-posted men in America. Mr. H. F. Hillenmyer, whose reputation as a nurseryman is national, conducts each week a department of answers to inquiries, in which he gives from his vast store of knowledge, experience and study, his views and advice on any subject pertaining to the orchard, lawn or garden, about which information may be desired. Every issue of The Kentucky Farmer and Breeder contains the most pertinent news and the most timely advice for farmers and stock raisers of every sort.

As a medium for all forms of farm and live stock advertising (for both of which it offers special discounts), it has no rival in the state. More than half its circulation is in Kentucky, and for the most part among people who are interested in and able to buy either farms or good stock.

By special arrangement we are able to offer for a limited time

THE KENTUCKY FARMER AND BREEDER

AND

THE BREATHITT COUNTY NEWS

BOTH FOR 1 YEAR AT $2.00

THE PRICE OF THE KENTUCKY FARMER AND BREEDER ALONE.

It is the most valuable weekly paper in America for the farmers of Kentucky to take. Published at Lexington, "the hub of the horse world," and the center of the state's agricultural interests, it has the opportunity to obtain, and it never fails to publish live, up-to-date, fresh news and valuable feature matter which no other paper contains.

Sample copies may be had on application at this office.

BUNCHED PARAGRAPHS

RELATING TO AFFAIRS IN THIS AND ADJOINING STATES.

Wealthy Farmer Killed by His Son
Following a Quarrel—Operators and Miners Reach an Agreement.
Other Live Mention.

Cynthiana, Ky., Dec. 12.—Adam Joubert, a well-to-do farmer about 60 years of age, was shot and instantly killed by his son Joseph at their home near Greckinridge, in this county. Joseph was in the Philippines until about a year ago. Young Joubert was badly beaten by his father. There has been much trouble between the father on one side and the mother and two sons on the other. The old man had served a term of two years in the penitentiary at Frankfort for killing a young man named Colvin in November, 1898, in this county.

Marcum Damage Case.
Winchester, Ky., Dec. 13.—The trial of the suit of Mrs. Angela Marcum for $100,000 damages against Senator Alex Hargis, Judge James Hargis, Sheriff Ed Callahan and B. F. French began Monday. A. Floyd Byrd, who prosecuted Curt Jett and Tom White for the murder of the husband of Mrs. Marcum, opened the case for the plaintiff, reviewing the circumstances that led to the killing of Marcum. Ruck Cottongame one of the witnesses, who Mrs. Marcum in an affidavit declared had been bribed and enticed away by the defendants, was arrested in Richmond, Ky., by Sheriff McCord, and is in the custody. He says Moss Feltner and Sam Fields are in Hamilton, O. Mrs. Marcum thinks they will return and testify in her behalf.

Ohio River Ice Gorges.
Wheeling, W. Va., Dec. 13.—The ice gorges, which began to form below and above here when the river froze over Sunday, are rapidly being extended up stream. Temperature is extremely low and ice chunks are solidifying to an extent that alarms river men. The first gorge formed at Moundsville and is several miles in length. The second formed against the Union railroad bridge and extended over the Slacktown pumping station, a mile above town. The Ohio river is frozen over here for the first time in so early a date in the history of Ohio river navigation.

Kentuckian Missing.
St. Louis, Dec. 9.—Relatives of Charles L. Mason, a wealthy young coal dealer of Paducah, Ky., who disappeared in this city Nov. 19, after coming here from Chicago, believe he met with foul play. He wore diamonds worth several hundred dollars, and is believed to have had between $700 and $1,000 with him. Detectives placed on the case the day after Mason's disappearance have failed to find a clew of the missing man.

Charged With Forgery.
Louisville, Ky., Dec. 9.—A man, supposed to be John R. McFee, a Chicago attorney, was arrested at the Neyitt hotel by a Chicago detective, assisted by local officers. McFee is said to be wanted on a charge of forging notes and announced his willingness to return to Chicago at once. The local detective department said that the man would be held until requisition papers arrived.

FOUNDED BY STORMS.

Disasters to Shipping at Points on the Atlantic Coast.

Highland Light, Mass., Dec. 12.—Four of the 20 members of the crew of the Boston fishing schooner Fish Hawk lost their lives after deserting their vessel, which had struck and was pounding heavily on Peaked Hill bars, at the north end of Cape Cod. Five others, including Captain Bly, who followed their four companions over the side, had a severe six-hour's tussle against a freezing sea and gale in a small dory, but managed to reach Provincetown harbor. The deaths and suffering would have been avoided had all stayed by their vessel, which had a miraculous escape, and four hours later was safely anchored in Provincetown harbor. The lost seamen were: Thomas Kennedy, East Boston; John Woodworth, Everett; John Drew, Boston; Joseph Kehoe, Gloucester. Kennedy's body was recovered by the life-avers, but none of the other bodies was seen.

To Enlarge Commission's Powers.
Washington, Dec. 10.—Enlargement of the powers of the interstate commerce commission is one of the questions which will be pressed vigorously at the present session of congress. It can be said that, in the mind of President Roosevelt, no problem more important than this to all the people of the country is likely to engage the attention of congress this winter. It is urged that the commission be given power by law to regulate freight rates.

Russo-American Treaty.
St. Petersburg, Dec. 8.—Foreign Minister Lamsdorff has informed Spencer Eddy, the American chargé d'affaires, that the amendments Russia will propose to the Russo-American treaty are almost completed and will be transmitted in a few days. They are not numerous nor of great importance, and it is confidently expected that an agreement will be speedily reached.

Heavy Loss by Fire.
Rochester, N. Y., Dec. 12.—The Robey building was destroyed by fire, entailing a loss of about $400,000. The building, which was valued at $600,000, was practically destroyed. The Van Bergh Silver-Plate company losses $250,000, with an insurance of $150,000. The Hayden Furniture company lost $100,000; insured.

Reach an Agreement.
Charleston, W. Va., Dec. 10.—The operators and striking miners in the Cabin creek district came to an agreement, the terms of which are that the operators shall stop the evictions which began Wednesday, and the union miners will quietly leave the premises of the Cabin creek operators and seek employment in other fields. There are 23 operations in the Cabin creek field, from which more than 700 families will withdraw within the next two weeks.

Shot Son-in-Law.
Cincinnati, O., Dec. 13.—Edward Wilson, a piano tuner, formerly of Dayton, Ky., was probably fatally shot by his father-in-law, W. H. Ducker, at the latter's home in that city. Wilson and his wife had quarreled and separated. Wilson wanted to induce his wife to return to him, but her father prevented their meeting, and the shooting occurred during the quarrel which followed. Ducker claims he shot in self-defense.

That Throbbing Headache

would quickly leave you if you use Dr. King's New Life Pills. Thousands of sufferers have proved their matchless merit for Sick and Nervous Headaches. They make pure blood and build up your health. Only 25c, money back if not cured. Sold by Jackson Drug Co.

The Baboon's Nine Lives.

When baboons once take to a mealie field they will not leave it till they have eaten every cob. When they depart every evening for home they have filled their stomachs, their cheek pouches and their arms! You cannot poison these pests, for fifteen grains of pure strychnine in a banana has failed to kill one. Only shooting with a rifle will do, and no human army was ever cleverer in setting sentries. Even at night a large force of hunters has often been defied in its attempts to surround the rocky stronghold of Cynocephalus porcellus. Even dogs sent against the baboons have failed, creatures which have hands with which to seize their enemies before biting them. Let the stay at home farmer congratulate himself on possessing merely rooks, pigeons, rats and sparrows!—Country Gentleman.
